

DOMESTIC RELATIONS STANDING ORDER

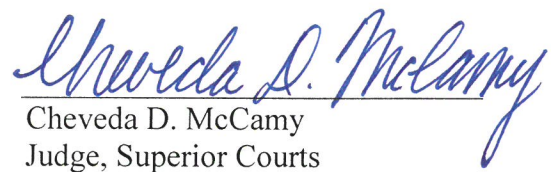

IT IS ORDERED that this Domestic Relations Standing Order shall apply to all domestic relations cases assigned to the undersigned, Judge Cheveda D. McCamy, on or after the date of this Order.

All parties in the above-styled action in the Superior Court of Newton County are subject to this Order from the date of institution of suit or service of summons:

1. Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from doing, or attempting to do, or threatening to do, directly or indirectly, any act of injuring, maltreating, vilifying, molesting, or harassing the adverse party or any of the children of the parties.
2. Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from selling, encumbering, contracting to sell, or otherwise disposing of or removing from the jurisdiction of the Court, any of the property belonging to the parties except in the ordinary course of business.
3. Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from disconnecting or causing to be disconnected any utility-providing service to the home of the other party. Neither party shall change, cause to change, cancel, or cause the cancellation of any insurance presently in effect which protects the parties or any of their children or property.
4. This Order shall be binding upon the parties in the above-styled action that was filed in Newton County Superior Court, and upon their agents, servants, employees, and all other persons acting in concert with said parties.
5. If this case involves the issue of child custody, except by written agreement of the parties or court order, then neither party shall cause or permit the minor child(ren) to be removed from the State of Georgia.
6. If the parties have minor children, then each party must attend the Circuit's Divorcing Parents Seminar. For more information on the Seminar, you may contact Ms. Claire Treadwell at 770-267-1343.
7. You must provide the following documentation to this Court by filing it with the Clerk of Court:
 - a. If this case involves financial issues such as child support, alimony, division of property and debt, or contempt of a court order addressing these issues, then, pursuant to Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2, you must file your Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit with the Clerk at least five (5) days before the scheduled hearing.
 - b. If this case involves child support or custody, then, pursuant to Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2, you must file your Child Support Worksheets with the Clerk at least five (5) days before the scheduled hearing. Please note that under the law, the Court is required to establish child support. The right to receive child support belongs to the child and cannot be waived by the custodial parent. Wynn v. Craven, 301 Ga. 30, 32 (2017).

- c. If this case involves an action for contempt of a previous court order or is an action for modification of custody, visitation, child support, or alimony, then you must attach copies of all prior orders which you seek to enforce or modify in your action.
8. Each party shall bring the following documents to each hearing in this case:
 - a. Documents reflecting your current income, including a copy of your most recent, paystub, state and federal income tax returns, W-2 forms, and 1099 forms.
 - b. If this case involves child support, documents from your employer or insurance company showing how much you pay for health, dental, and vision for the child(ren) at issue. These documents should show how much you pay for insurance for each child.
 - c. You must bring any documents or exhibits, including video recordings and audio recordings, that you may seek to introduce at the hearing. Documents and pictures must be in a printed form and you must bring copies for yourself, for the opposing party, and for the Court. You must bring any electronic media, including video recordings and audio recordings, on either a flash drive or a cd. Please note that once admitted, any flash drive or cd will be placed in the case file and will not be returned to a party.
 - d. Please Note– If any documents that you plan to file or bring to Court contain social security numbers, taxpayer identification numbers or financial account numbers, then you must redact those numbers by marking out all but the last four digits. Additionally, any documents containing a date of birth must be redacted so that only the year of birth is visible.
 9. If you fail to comply with the provisions of this Order, then you may be sanctioned by or held in contempt of this Court.
 10. This serves to put the parties on notice that the Court may rely on evidence introduced at any temporary hearing in making its final custody determination. Pace v. Pace, 287 Ga, 899 (2010).
 11. The Court is prohibited from providing legal advice. You should seek the advice of an attorney for any legal questions and issues that you have concerning your case.

SO ORDERED, this 14th day of December, 2022.

Cheveda D. McCamy
Judge, Superior Courts
Alcovy Judicial Circuit